TRAINING THAT SHAPES YOU

Through a study of theology, the humanities, and other disciplines at the university, students learn to interpret the Bible carefully, draw relevant applications, communicate well in a multi-cultural context, and humbly lead through service, wisdom, and practical love of neighbor.

CRITICAL THINKING | BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION | CROSS-CULTURAL SKILLS | SERVANT LEADERSHIP

LEARNING BY DOING

Study with a diverse Christian faculty committed to the divine inspiration and authority of the Bible, the saving power of Jesus Christ, and the present work of the Holy Spirit.
A liberal arts core curriculum, general elective courses chosen from other programs, and required practicum experience equip the graduate of Theology for Christian ministry, graduate study, and even leadership beyond the church.
